

Please do not change the current phone privacy laws for Indiana.
Our home regularly received approx. 200 calls per MONTH from those who wish to sell us things or take unnecessary "surveys." Since the implementation of this law, we are enjoying our family time at home much, much more.